When seen he was crouching behind a big chair on the veranda of the house and when asked what his business was he enquired for Mrs. Jones from he wanted something to eat. As there was no Mrs. Jones in the house he was taken to the Police Station and when searched a razor, a bunch of skeleton keys and some cartridges were found on his person. The judge sent him to jail for four months.

THOUSANDS GATHER.

A Large Mass Meeting of Asiatics Protest Against Claim's Court.

The Chinese and Japanese colonies joined hands on Saturday evening when they held an open air mass meeting to protest against the rules and regulations of the Court of Claims which they stigmatized as unfair and unjust.

The following resolution which is similar to that adopted by the Chamber of Commerce was unanimously adopted by the large concourse.

The Chinese and Japanese committees took their seats on the platform which was erected in the yard of the Japanese schoolhouse on Vineyard street. The chairman of the Chinese committee was C. Wiman, and the speakers in the Chinese language were Ng Chan, Chun Ming and Wong Shin.

The Japanese committee was presided over by Sato Guugi, and the speakers were S. Otsuka, Y. Soga and Ishikawa.

After the vernacular speeches were finished Mr. Wm. T. Kwai Fong made a clever address in the English language, stating in terse language what the Chinese, who had suffered so much, wanted—they want justice and fair treatment.

Mr. A. K. Ozawa was the last speaker. He made an eloquent speech in English. He suggested that all claimants, Chinese and Japanese, act in concert. For this purpose a respectable committee should be selected and all claims be left in their hands; this committee to have full power to act in all matters connected with claims.

"If justice cannot be got from the Court of Claims, the committee can bring the matter up before the Council of State, now assembled, or to the next Legislature, or even to Washington, providing the necessary steps are taken. I believe in the maxim, 'United we stand, divided we fall.' Let me conclude by requesting that whatever course you pursue you must do it peacefully and within the limits of the law."

He then presented the following resolution:

"Resolved, That it is the sense of the Japanese and Chinese residents of Honolulu in mass meeting assembled that the rules and regulations published in regard to the Court of Claims are unfair and unjust and should be changed.

"That no claims for damages should be presented to said Court for adjustment, for the reason that under the existing rules justice cannot be obtained.

"That a copy of the resolution be presented to President S. B. Dole by a committee appointed by the chairman of this meeting."

The meeting was extremely orderly and it was evident that all present were there for an earnest purpose and deeply interested in the proceedings.

Laid at Rest.

A large number of people were present yesterday to render the last honors to the late Robert Hoapili Baker, whose remains were interred at Kawaiahae Cemetery after funeral services at the Millilani Hall, conducted by Mr. Gilbert J. Waller, according to ritual of the Reformed Church of the Latter Day Saints, of which the deceased was a member.

The floral offerings were numerous and artistically arranged by friends. Pretty kahilis were waived over the handsome coffin, and while those in attendance viewed the body the quintet club rendered sweet Hawaiian songs. After the service, at which Mr. Waller made an eloquent address, the procession was formed, headed by the Government band it proceeded to the grave a few blocks away. The coffin was lowered and another faithful friend of Kalakua disappeared from the scene of this life.
